"Giten is a loving transmitter of much wisdom"

Lena Nikunen, therapist, Gothenburg, Sweden

"I value Giten's work and know how much good he spreads to many people."

Lena Kristina Tuulse, psychologist, pioneer in humanistic psychology and founder of Waxthuset, one of the oldest and largest places for personal growth in Sweden

"Giten write in a poetic language.

"When I read Giten, I am reminded of Kahlil Gibran.
Yes, I would like to compare Giten to Kahlil Gibran."

Gordon Banta, author of Magic of Meditation, Creative Dreams
and The Universal Mirror, USA

"I have been impressed with Giten's writings from the first time I encountered them.

Regardless what happens in the objective world,
it is the meaning that we attach to events
that determines our subjective reality.

In keeping our hearts with all diligence,
Giten helps us address the issues of our lives, fluently
and eloquently speaking the language of the heart."

Larry Chang, author of *Wisdom for the Soul:
Five Millennia of Prescriptions for Spiritual Healing*
and Wisdom for the Soul of Black Folk, Washington, USA

"Thanks Giten for 'gifting' the world with insight and clarity.
Keep up the good work that you are so brilliantly doing."

Lin David Martin, international therapist, course leader and author of Divine Chuckles, Arizona, USA

"Giten's work is very important and I thank him for supporting the Whole of Who We Are!"

Tim Miejan, editor, Edge Life Magazine,
a leading source in the United States for inspiration, education,
personal growth and global transformation

"We at Healthy Holistic Living are impressed by all the work Giten is doing to help people."

"I am impressed by Giten's intuition and by his way of conducting therapeutic work
- or if I rather should call this: giving insights into love."

Berth Henriksson, teacher and participant in a course with Giten, Sodertalje, Sweden

"Giten's words and his work clearly resonate."

Deborah Mokma, editor, Sentient Times, USA

"I love Giten's quotes and will be featuring it in my weekly newsletter.
Thanks so much to Giten for sharing his beautiful soul with all of us.
It's a blessing that we are One."

“I want to congratulate Giten on The Silent Whisperings of the Heart.
I feel a most brilliant connection to him through the “crown” of creation.
Thank you for appearing in my life, Giten.”

Evan Thomas, creative director, Planetlightworker.com

”Wonderful texts! Giten describe everything so well! The true truth!
Giten’s texts are so full of heart and soul! Giten paint with the language and talks with the soul!”

Carina, editor, Mirakelboken.com

“I really love Giten's words.
How beautiful he put the words together and creates his song of meditation.
How beautifully he shares his love and meditation with the world.”

Maha Conyers, Rev., MA, Ed.Psych, Maui, Hawaii

"I appreciate Giten for his ability to share truths in ways that seem so clear".

Marlene Blaszczyk,
Motivating Moments, editor and publisher

'Dear Giten, I got a wonderful birthday gift from you in the form of your book The Silent Whisperings of the Heart, which came exactly when I needed it the most. Thank you, my dear friend, I was touched, happy and helped in new decisions.'

Toshen, beloved friend to Giten since many lives

“In The Whisperings of the Heart, Giten points at the variety of ways in which our inner being expresses itself in terms of our actions and our relationships. He also provides insights in various areas, including of course, those of healing and intuition, meditation, art and creativity, communications, loving relationships with both friends and family, working with people from love and awareness and spiritual maturity. His comments are both useful as well as joyful and inspirational. More than anything, they motivate us to taste where we may not have fully tasted before, to taste the beyond.

Giten invites us to a celebration, a feast for the soul and delights us and inspires us with capsules of insight and conscious affirmation of the deliciousness of the divine.”

From the foreword of Giten’s book The Silent Whisperings of the Heart by Eric Rolf, international lecturer, course leader, personal consultant to John Lennon, Yoko Ono, Paul Simon and Carlos Santana, author of Soul Medicine

“In The Silent Whisperings of the Heart, Swami Dhyani Giten attempts to explain the unexplainable. The title of this work utilizes a paradoxical metaphor, the silent whisper, which illustrates the difficulty in bringing wholeness – which is health – to one’s existence. The inner voice of our own divine nature, a voice that calls to us from beyond the unconscious, is rarely heard by most of us, for it speaks with a voice that makes no audible noise, and even when we can attune ourselves to the silent place from which it comes, it communicates to us as a silent whisper.

Indeed, this is a dauntless task that Giten has set off to perform. How do you describe a painting to one who was born blind and has never seen? How do you explain the beauty of a symphony to one who has always been deaf, never able to hear? How do you explain a holistic vision of the individual within the cosmos to one who has always been compartmentalized? How do you explain to someone who is invested in his or her individuality that “you are one with me as you are one with the tree as you are one with the divine.”

Giten has chosen the simple path, and a path without dogma. There is nothing here that the reader must believe. There is only the fruit of truth, and each truth hangs low on the tree, easily within anyone’s grasp.

The voice that he seeks to elicit from within has been called by many names. Some call the source of this voice the “higher self.” Others say that it’s the voice of our guardian angel or spirit guides. Still others say that this is no less than the voice of God. No matter how the reader perceives this voice, it is the voice of inner guidance, what Giten calls the voice of the “authentic self.” Finding this voice – listening to and heeding this voice – is the way to salvation, health and wholeness.”

“I am always delighted to see Giten’s art.
I appreciate Giten’s aesthetic sense.
Giten is a really beautiful soul”

Swami Anand Arun, Osho Tapoban Meditation Center, Nepal

"I like Giten's art a lot".

Karuna Kress, Ed.D.,
international organizational consultant

"I just saw your paintings on the net - they are just wonderful.
I can see the depth and reflection of your meditation in your paintings.

I think your creative paintings have the very taste of being, of the ultimate. They are so unique with great simplicity - just like: the grass grows by itself".

Tushar, artist and painter, India

"I very much enjoyed seeing Giten's art on the web.
I am amazed at Giten's art work and his talent is outstanding.
I think you he is Master of his art".

Chingiz Abassov, artist and art teacher,
Russian Master of Monumental and Decorative Arts,
Academy of Arts and Design, St. Petersburg, Russia

"While I cannot express enough how grateful I am to receive your paintings, Please know I sincerely appreciate your kindness and good thought. There are so many people in this world who are in keen need of your energies that, in keeping with The Kindness Chain, I ask you to consider sharing your good will with them in the future."
